

|   |                                       |   |
|---|---------------------------------------|---|
| Name:  | Dr. Mark Green                        |  |
| Affiliation:   | University of Melbourne,Australia |   |
| Biography  |                                       |   |
| Dr. Mark Green obtained his PhD from the University of Nottingham UK prior to undertaking a Life Sciences Postdoctoral Fellowship with Prof Mike Roberts at the University of Missouri USA. In 2004 he became the inaugural Maurice Paykel Fellow and relocated to The Liggins Institute, University of Auckland NZ. He subsequently held a joint appointment as the first Fertility Associates Research Fellow at The Liggins Institute, University of Auckland and as a Senior Scientist running his own group at AgResearch Ltd NZ. In 2011 he took up his current appointment as the Merck Serono Senior Lecturer in Reproductive Biology and group leader at the University of Melbourne, Australia. Dr Green's research centres on improving. |                                       |   |